The Electric Cemetery

The Electric Cemetery: The Living, The Dead and the Power Question

In this inaugural lecture as L.R. Wilson Professor of Canadian History, H.V. Nelles will reflect upon the electricity question in Ontario, a subject which he studied at the beginning of his career as a historian in the 1960’s, returned to from time to time in the intervening years and which continues to be at the centre of public life in the province.

Thursday, February 16th
3:00 - 6:00 p.m.
University Club, Great Hall

H.V. Nelles is the L.R. Wilson Professor of Canadian History at McMaster University, and Distinguished Research Professor Emeritus at York University.
