

“War and Peace: July 1914 and the Conference that never was”

Sir Edward Grey

Sergei Sazonov

Raymond Poincaré

Nikola Pašić

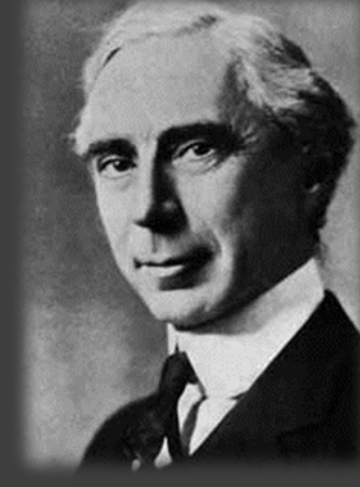

Jean Jaurès

Leopold Berchtold

Theobald von
Bethmann Hollweg

Bertrand Russell

Please join us for a graduate student enactment of the meeting proposed but never held by Foreign Secretary Edward Grey in July 1914 to discuss the crisis among the European powers.
Discussion and reception to follow.

Tuesday, 11 November 2014

Robinson Memorial Theatre, Chester New Hall, 1st Floor, North Wing 4:30 p.m. ~ All Welcome!

Sponsored by The Department of History and
The Wilson Institute for Canadian History